DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Chevalier (6,866,223). Chevalier discloses a nacelle lip (6) of an airplane engine.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Garner et al. (3,802,245) in view of Bulgrin et al. (3,195,491). Garner discloses the forming of a blank (P) into a torus shape having an inner semicircle (100) and an outer semicircle separated by an elliptic bottom (98). The blank is formed by a press working die (58) having annular rings (62,64). Garner does not disclose that the blank is spun prior to being pressed. Bulgrin teaches that it is known to spin a blank (A) into an intermediate product (D) having a round portion and U-shaped cross section and then to use press working to obtain an end product (column 5, lines 14-18). It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time of invention to spin the blank of Garner into an intermediate shape as taught by Bulgrin in order to avoid stress cracks or wrinkles in the material during forming.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
